DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to the Amendment filed 2/20/08. Claims 2, 4-14, 16-23, and 57-61 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 4, 22, and 23 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 4 has been amended to state "wherein the header OFDM symbol further contain". This appears to be a typo. It is recommended that the word "contain" be amended to "contains" in accordance with the now singular "header OFDM symbol".

Claim 22 contains the same typo as claim 4.

Claim 23 is objected to since it depends on claim 22.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 57-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wallace et al. (U.S. Pat. 6473467) in view of Applicant's admitter prior art.

With respect to claims 57-59, Wallace et al. discloses transmitting an OFDM preamble having a prefix that is a cyclic repetition (See column 14 lines 40-55 and Figure 1B of Wallace et al. for reference to appending a cyclic prefix/extension to an OFDM preamble). Wallace et al. does not disclose following the prefix with two correlated header symbols. Wallace et al. does not disclose using two correlated header symbols.

With respect to claims 60 and 61, the Wallace et al. does not disclose following the prefix with two identical header symbols.

With respect to claims 57-61, the Applicant's admitter prior art discloses using multiple identical header symbols (See page 4 line 18 to page 5 line 6 of the Applicant's specification for reference to using repeated OFDM symbols, which are inherently correlated since they contain repeated data). Using multiple identical header symbols has the advantage of allowing synchronization to be more easily obtained.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention, when presented with the Applicant's admitted prior art, to combine using multiple identical header symbols, as suggested by Applicant's admitted prior art, with the system and method of Wallace et al. and Ma et al., with the motivation being to allow synchronization to be more easily obtained.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2, 5-14, and 16-21 are allowed.
6. Claims 4, 22, and 23 would be allowable if amended to overcome the claim objections, as noted above.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 2/20/08, with respect to claims 2, 4-14, and 16-23 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The previous rejections of these claims under 35 U.S.C. 103 have been withdrawn.
8. Applicant's arguments filed 2/20/08 with respect to claims 57-61 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that a combination of Wallace et al. with the Applicant's admitted prior art would result in a preamble having a form including a prefix, followed by a header symbol, followed by another prefix, and followed by another header symbol. However, this argument is moot, since even if this were the case, there is no limitation in claims 57-61 that precludes a second prefix from being placed in between the plurality of claimed header symbols.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Baum et al. (U.S. Pat. 6959050 B2), Ring (U.S. Pat. 6430148 B1), and Brink et al. (U.S. Pat. 6038450) each disclose relevant OFDM transmission systems including synchronization information.

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
